Men's International Health Week

This month it was Men's International Health Week so we are reminding all our staff Nurses UK to speak up if they need to. We have always had an open door policy for all of our team and family at Nurses UK. If you need support mentally or physically get in touch with your local office today.

Race for Life 2024

Congratulations to the women from our Head Office who participated in the Race For Life in Hastings. The atmosphere was fantastic, and it was great to have the sun shining for all of us! Rosie, a retired nurse and the mother of our Managing Director, who is also the inspiration behind Nurses UK, participated with the team. She was truly inspiring, leaving the rest of us behind at the starting line.
