What's on this month at Nurses UK:

Welcome to the team! We're expanding

Some lovely new faces joining the Head Office team this month

Jazzmine Undergate - Bookings Team

My name is Jazzmine Ungate and I am a booking coordinator for the Nurses UK group head office. I was born and raised in Hong Kong, have lived in several countries and have been in England for the last 5 years. I am enthusiastic to forge a fruitful future with the Nurses UK team, developing the enriching business model of a company whose advocacy for this impressive industry is vital. My skills in problem solving, data retention and multitasking with impressive attention to detail have been sharpened through years of experience in multiple industries. I endeavour to progress myself personally and professionally and savour the opportunity to advocate for health care professionals and nurses. Don't be afraid - get in touch & introduce yourself to the team!

Kyle Parker - Accounts Payable

Hi everyone, I'm excited to join Nurses UK Accounts Department! I bring 6 years of experience in accountancy and a strong passion for spreadsheets. Previously, I worked at a legal firm, where I ran the accounts department and oversaw the firm go from one office to 8. I'm particularly looking forward to seeing nurses UK franchising begin to thrive and being part of such a friendly team. A little about me: outside of work, I enjoy all things outdoors, and you'll often find me camped in a forest during medieval events where I teach Archery and Axe Throwing. If I'm not doing that, you will probably find me writing, my first novel is to be published at the end of June so watch this space! I'm always open to learning new things and meeting new people, so feel free to reach out for a chat!
